

ABSTRACT

EVAL microporous hydrophilic hollow fiber membranes are formed from a casting dope that includes low and high 5 molecular weight pore-formers. Post-fabrication treatment includes stretching, hot water soaking and crosslinking.